The Baltimore committee of arrangements is actively at work preparing for the proper entertainment of the visiting Knights, of whom already some 3,000 have signified their intention of being present. Grand Master Sir W. Sewell Gardpresent. Grand Master Sir W. THE FASHIONS Fall Silks.-Handsome Toilets Jet Jewelry.

From Courier's Street, Saloon and Shop. There is still a call for the black and white checked silks which are popular for summer wear. The latest suits are made with a single skirt and polonaise. Pinked ruffling. bias bands or velvet, are the usual trimmings. These silks have been reduced to o cents a yard. Silks with double stripes which show two shades of the same color are shown for fall. The stripes are repped, and the silk is 22 inches wide: $2 a vard. There also single stripes of all the popular colors golden brown, prune, French gray, Nile green, and various other shades on black ids. It is almost too soon to predic with any certainty whether or no stripes will be popular for fall wear; if so, these silks will no doubt find a ready sale. The fancy for wearing white or striped waist and over skirt over a silk skirt continues. Ladies can vary their toilets with these pretty costumes without much cost and ery little trouble. Linen or Victoria lawn skirts which belonged to last summer's suits are, when wide enough, looped up for over dress over a silk skirt, with very good effect. The basque which belonged to the suit is worn with it, or else the box-plaited skirt which is so much in vogue. A yery pretty costume donsists of skirt and overskirt of white and black checked sumner silk, with a white linen lawn plaited waist. In a costume of this style which floated before our relation, the collars and outst of the shirt were tume of this style which floated before our vision, the collars and cuffs of the shirt were of the finest linen. The first was made with deep points in front, and the last were at least a finger and a half in depth. The necktie was plain black silk cut on the bias; below this was a plain lace scarf which draped the shoulders, then crossing very low on the waist, like a fichu, the ends fell some inches below the sash. Jet jeweiry and a hat trimmed with white and black ostrich feathers completed a very styleish costume.

Music Department. The authorities of the College are determin ed that this department shall be conducted by the best professional ability. The patrons may feel assured that the music taught here is not of that silly, sentimental character by which the refined and cultivated car is so often shocked; but it is true music, that which tends to refine the feelings and inspire pure and exalted emotion.
